Position Summary

The role of the Elorac Place Repair Café Volunteer is to provide support to the Elorac Place team. This includes a range of tasks to ensure that the community members of the centre are being supported, and service delivery is maintained.

Key Role Accountabilities

Depending on their interests and level of skill, and under the direction of paid staff, the Elorac Place Repair Café Volunteer may be asked to be involved in some or all the following activities:

- Providing support to community members to assist in identifying ways to troubleshoot and repair household items.
- Assisting with sewing, mending clothing and textile repairs.
- Sharing practical skills, knowledge and encouragement.
- Working alongside community members to build their confidence and repair skills.
- Following and promoting safe work practices, procedures and instructions as per Wesley Mission Queensland Workplace Health and Safety.
- Other tasks as required.

The Repair Café operates as a collaborative learning space where volunteers empower community members to find pathways to fix their own belongings. To ensure safety and maintain professional boundaries, volunteers will decline repairs that are deemed overly complex or that present a safety risk.
