Position Summary

Spiritual Care Volunteers provide spiritual care support to residents, working in liaison with and reporting to the designated Chaplain of the Pastoral and Spiritual Care (PSC) team and supported by the Mission Development Coordinator.

Spiritual Care Volunteers play an integral part in a multi-disciplinary team, offering compassionate spiritual care to customers and residents, working alongside and under the direction of Wesley Mission Queensland's PSC team. Volunteer opportunities and responsibilities may be developed to reflect the Spiritual Care Volunteer's skills and talents, in liaison with the PSC team.

Key Role Accountabilities

As part of their role, the Spiritual Care Volunteer may be involved in one or more of the following activities:

- Visit with designated residents on behalf of the PSC team.
- Completion of obligatory documentation in relation to visits completed.
- Ensuring requests and referrals from residents are conveyed to the PSC team.
- Consulting with and seeking support and/or advice from the PSC team as required.
- Communicating with other volunteers and Wesley Mission Queensland staff to enhance our holistic framework of care for residents.

- Assisting with the setup and facilitation of chaplaincy services and other events.
- Providing administrative and or technical assistance as required.
- Other duties relevant to the role.

Spiritual Care Support Volunteers are expected to be:

- Understanding and grounded in the belief that our shared humanity is sacred and beneficial, regardless of cultural, religious, traditional, or existential beliefs.
- Respectful of and comfortable working with people of diverse cultures and traditions.
- Self-reflective.
- Comfortable with the shared human search for meaning, purpose and connectedness.
- Able to instil calm and lessen anxiety through compassionate listening and presence.
- Understanding of professional conduct and respectful of appropriate boundaries.
- Committed to healthy spiritual practice.

Conditions

Wesley Mission Queensland Volunteers work alongside and under the direct supervision of a designated paid staff member, and do not replace any paid positions within the Mission.

Unless negotiated with the local manager and officially documented through Volunteer Relations, Wesley Mission Queensland volunteers are not permitted to provide:

- Services beyond those negotiate with their Workplace Supervisor and Local Level Manager.
- Personal, financial, or any other types of counselling to customers (participants, clients, residents, and guests), or others.
- Services that are recognised as high risk to their safety or the safety of customers (participants, clients, residents, and guests), or others. This is inclusive of direct feeding, personal care, distribution of medication, manual handling or driving customers (participants, clients, residents, and guests), in their private vehicles.

All Wesley Mission Queensland volunteers must be willing to read and understand the statement of duties, guidelines, and other requirements as detailed in this document and the accompanying Wesley Mission Queensland Volunteer Handbook and agree to undertake the responsibilities to the best of their ability.

Volunteer Hours

- Volunteers negotiate and agree to their hours before commencement. Hours are dependent on the program's needs and volunteer availability.
- Volunteers are required to notify their Workplace Supervisor if they are unable to attend their shift.
- Volunteers do not contact customers, residents, or families outside of their agreed hours.

Education

Wesley Mission Queensland volunteers are provided with the opportunity to be involved in quality mandatory and optional education opportunities through their Workplace Supervisor.

Vaccinations and COVID-19 Safe Work Plan

Wesley Mission Queensland volunteers are required to:

- Provide proof of vaccination status as required by Legislation, Health Directives or WMQ policy prior to commencement and throughout their engagement with us.
- Follow a COVID-19 safe work plan at all times while volunteering.
